RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF HAWAI‘I

Supreme Court Rule 1.9

<http://www.state.hi.us/jud/ctrules/rsch.htm#%201.9>

1.9. Pro hac vice appearance of counsel.

Any attorney actively licensed to practice law by the highest court of a state or territory of the United States or the District of Columbia who is not a resident of Hawai‘i may be permitted to associate himself or herself with a member or members of the Hawai‘i bar in the presentation of a specific case at the discretion of the presiding judge or judges.

An attorney allowed to appear pro hac vice shall, for each year the order is effective, pay to the Hawai‘i State Bar Association the annual Disciplinary Board fee required of all active Hawai‘i attorneys, provided that if the attorney is allowed to appear in more than one case, only one fee shall be paid. The Hawai‘i State Bar may assess a reasonable fee to register and collect this fee on an annual basis.

Failure to file proof of such payment in the record, within 10 days after entry of the order and in January of each subsequent year in which the case is pending, voids the order allowing the appearance pro hac vice.

(Amended September 5, 1996, effective October 1, 1996; further amended October 21, 1996, effective October 1, 1996; further amended and effective October 27, 1997.)
