

Pro Bono Commitments

Rule 6.1 of the Hawai'i Rules of Professional Conduct embodies an aspirational goal that lawyers provide 50 hours of pro bono service annually, which would encompass participation in various pro bono activities as described in the rule. The firms and government offices listed below were contacted by a member of the Access to Justice Commission, and each of these groups has expressed a willingness to meet the goal outlined in Rule 6.1.

Groups interested in making a similar commitment should contact Jill Hasegawa, Vice-Chair of the Access to Justice Commission at jhasegawa@awlaw.com.
