STARN O'TOOLE MARCUS & FISHER SUPPORTS

ACCESS TO JUSTICE COMMISSION

Law Firm Attorneys and Paralegals To Provide Pro Bono Services

(Honolulu Hawaii) Hawaii Supreme Court Justice and Chairman of the Access to Justice Commission, Simeon R. Acoba, met with Starn O'Toole Marcus & Fisher directors to confirm their commitment to providing pro bono legal services to the community. As part of the commission's community wide action plan, the law firm has committed to provide at least 50 hours of pro bono services annually from each of their attorneys and paralegals.

Justice Acoba said, "We are especially happy to have the cooperation of Starn O'Toole Marcus & Fisher in providing leadership for the Hawaii State Bar's commitment to providing services for low and moderate income persons. This contribution will have a significant impact on providing access to justice and we appreciate their exemplary efforts."
