Lawyers licensed and in good standing in other States shall be entitled to become affiliate members of the Hawaii State Bar Association upon payment of such dues as shall be prescribed from time to time by the Board of Directors. Affiliate members shall not be entitled to practice law in this State or to vote or hold office in the Bar Association, but shall be entitled to such other privileges as the Board shall prescribe from time to time. Affiliate members shall not advertise or hold themselves out as members of the Hawaii Bar, nor shall they use or knowingly permit the use of their affiliate membership status in any directory or law list for the purpose of soliciting or obtaining business or financial advantage. Violation of this rule by an affiliate member shall be grounds for suspension or revocation of such member's affiliate membership status.
